

Botanical Drawing Workshop at Pha Tad Ke - Available From 15 October 2017 till end January 2018

Turn your visit to PTK into a creative experience with watercolours, under the professional guidance of our resident professional botanical illustrator/artist Magda Korotynska.

Boat departure from our in-town reception at 9am. After the workshop and lunch you are free to spend the rest of your time in the garden and take any of our return boats (last one 5.30pm).

Numbers are limited so you can be sure of individual attention, and Boat, tea break, lunch and materials are all included.

From 9am to 1:30pm (2,5hrs instruction, 1hr lunch) $95 (minimum 2 / maximum 10pax)

During this workshop, you will learn how to draw and paint your chosen specimen using a variety of watercolour techniques, like how to let the paint spread and soak into the paper, letting one area dry while working on another, and layering techniques so that you come away with a beautiful keepsake of your visit to PTK.

About the artist - Magda Korotynska

Magda Korotynska is an artist/illustrator with a master's degree from the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw, Poland. After moving to Sweden in 1982 she continued her work on a freelance basis with numerous different projects, such as illustrations for children's books, educational materials, fact books, advertising and magazines. She participated in many group and individual exhibitions in Sweden, Poland and Germany. For a number of years she painted botanical illustrations for the National Key, which had the ambition to present Sweden's entire flora and fauna in book form in about 100 books ! During 2015-2017 she spent several months in Laos working on illustrations for two children's books written by Melody Kemp: "Big T's song" and "Surfing the hills".
